

QUESTION!

Why are the national television broadcasting organization allowed to display obviously obscene pictures of prisoners in Iraq when, for example pornography publisher, Larry Flynt, would be attacked by the likes of Attorney General John Ashcroft and his Bible-bagging fellow travelers, were he to publish similar photographic content?